Lent Study Groups – From Pancakes to Palm Crosses.

Welcome to the Church in Wales 2026 Lent Course! This week, 4th March, the focus is on Penitence – Looking back and looking forward - Brecon Cathedral.

Our groups, run immediately after the regular Thursday morning 10.30am Holy Eucharist and on Thursday evenings in the Cathedral at 7.00pm. All are welcome.

St. David Window

Viewers of BBC Songs of Praise may want to look out for our window of St David which will feature in today's show, 1st March. Filmed the other week, the production team said it would be included in the programme

Thursday 5th March, 2.30 pm – Mothers' Union. All are welcome to come to our meeting when the speaker will be Mrs Jean Hackett, who will be giving a presentation on hymns.

Archbishop's Lent Appeal

From Archbishop Cherry, 'This year's Lent Appeal will contribute to the diocesan fund dedicated to supporting social action projects in our ministry areas. Your generosity will enable local churches, including your own, to offer practical help, hope, and dignity to those who need it most. Do keep an eye out for envelopes to make a donation to the appeal!

If you would like to sign up to the Chorister Experience this afternoon, it is not too late. Scan the QR on poster to join and registration starts at 2.15pm. Sign up closes at 1.30pm.

Canon John

Requiem Mass for Canon Colin Westbrook

Fr Colin's Requiem will be held at St John the Baptist, Risca Road next Saturday, 7th March at 12 noon. Friends from the Cathedral are most welcome to attend.

Archbishop Cherry's Lent book for 2026 is by Trystan Owain Hughes, 'To hell's mouth and back', explores finding hope in our journeys through grief, faith, work, education and illness.

Copies are available in the Cathedral shop, £9.99.

Community needs: The Welsh Refugee Centre is in need of Size 6 nappies. Smaller sizes are not currently required. Also shampoo, shower gel, soap and feminine hygiene supplies. Thank you for your continued help and support. Ruth, Margaret and Patricia

The Food Bank is looking for tins of fruits, custard and rice pudding – if you are able to buy a few extra tins when you are out shopping.
