

The Church in Wales Provincial Safeguarding Policy

NEWPORT CATHEDRAL

Registered Charity no: 1202787

Statement of intent

The Church in Wales is committed to fostering an environment where everyone is able to worship and participate in the life of the church in safety.

THE CHURCH IN WALES THEREFORE WILL:

- recognise the personal dignity and rights of all children and adults as set out in the Human Rights Act 1998 and the 1989 United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child.
- robustly and consistently implement safeguarding policies procedures and guidance that conform to the current legislative and guidance framework and accepted best practice.
- promote a culture which listens to children and adults at risk.
- properly recruit, train and support all those in positions of trust.
- ensure that when concerns are raised they are taken seriously and dealt with appropriately.

Safeguarding is everyone's responsibility

All who work for the Church, including clergy, employees and volunteers, are regarded by the Church in Wales as persons working in positions of trust within the Church and as such are expected to adhere to the safeguarding policy and associated procedures and practice guidance.
